MEMORY VERSE

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

THE PRICE IS RIGHT

You will need:

- 8 small items (see below)
- 1 Bible, 10 large index cards
- 1 heaven poster
- Tally sheet for each team or child
- Treats (optional)

Preparation:

- Give each item a value (price) close to the actual cost and write it down in black ink on one side of a large index card.
- On the other side in red ink, write down an estimated amount that is either slightly higher or slightly lower than the actual price. Try to have about half of the estimated amounts higher, and half lower.
- Fold the index cards into tents so the red estimated amounts are showing.
- Make a card for the Bible also, with the actual value being what the Bible may have actually cost, and the estimated amount slightly higher.
- Then make a card for the heaven poster, with the actual value being $0 and the estimated amount $10,000.
- Display all 10 items in a row on a table with the Bible in the 9th spot and Heaven in the 10th spot as shown in the following example:

How to play the game:

- Play individually or in family teams.
- Give each team a tally sheet. (You can also do this individually, but the children will have more fun working together)
- As you point to the first item, have the children decide if the price shown is higher or lower than the actual price. Have them check the box accordingly on their tally sheet. Once they have made their choice, turn over the card to show the actual price and see if they got it right. Do the same for the rest of the items, one by one, as the kids keep score. Ham it up as a game show host might do, describing each item, etc.
- Have the kids guess if the actual price of the Bible is higher or lower, but before revealing the actual price, stop to see how well the kids are doing so far. Ask if any team got eight correct, seven, six, etc. Then turn over the Bible price. Whether the kids said the actual price is higher or lower doesn't really matter. Explain that even a Bible has a price, and can be bought.
- Last, have them guess if the actual price for Heaven is higher or lower than $10,000. The price of Heaven is important. Tell the children not to consider only the poster, but Heaven being the real thing. Most likely, they will guess that the price of heaven is higher, much higher than $10,000.

- As you turn over the card to reveal the actual price of $0, explain how Heaven is absolutely free. Not even one hundred thousand million dollars can buy Heaven. Did anyone get that right? Give a special treat to anyone who did.

Spot the Differences

Compare the picture on the top with the picture on bottom. Circle the 14 things that are different.

John Wrote About Heaven Match Game

Print two sets of the cards. Cut out the cards along the black lines. Mix up the cards and lay them out face down in rows. Turn over any two cards at a time. If the pictures match, remove them from the table. This counts as one set. If you make a match, you may take another turn. If they do not match, turn them back over and let the next person try. The person with the most sets wins!

John Wrote About Heaven

Cut the puzzle apart on the red lines, mix the pieces up, and put the picture back together.

BIBLE VERSE PUZZLE:

Have the Bible verse John 14:6 written on card stock and cut in several pieces to create a puzzle and placed into envelopes, then put together.

MAZE BIBLE VERSE:

Draw a squiggly line around a piece of paper and write today's Bible verse (John 14:6) on the squiggly line. Colour in the little shapes where the lines come together for an "added effect" for their maze poster! For extra fun, they can hand someone else their verse maze and see if they can read it and follow the verse along the lines!
