

Craft – Joseph Forgives His Brothers

A hand-drawn scroll with a thick black outline and horizontal lines representing the texture of the paper. The scroll is unrolled in the middle, with the ends curling up. The text is written in a simple, rounded, sans-serif font. The text reads: "For I know the plans I have for you" declares the Lord "plans to prosper you and not to harm you plans to give you a hope and a future."

For I know the plans I have
"For I know the plans I have for you" declares the Lord
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you plans to give you a hope and a future"

Jeremiah 29:11

Joseph finally told his brothers who he was. Then they were afraid that he would have them killed because of the way they had treated him. Instead, Joseph promised that he would take care of all of them. He sent them home to get their families and his father to come live in Egypt.

Sack of Grain-ola

You planned to harm me. But God planned it for good. He planned to do what is now being done. He wanted to save many lives.
