

ROMANS 3:21-31

SUPPLEMENTARY QUESTIONS:

1. READ ROMANS 3:21-31

What does this description of God's actions tell us about His nature?

2. Paul refers to the Law many times in this short passage. In what ways do we still, as Christians, add religious performance to the sufficient work of Jesus on the cross?

2. According to Paul, how can humans be in relationship with such an awesome and holy God?

3. When Paul writes "God presented Christ as an atoning sacrifice", the question arises: Why did Jesus need to die? (couldn't God have done it another way?) Discuss.

4. How should we receive God's action through Jesus?
